CENTAUR HOOFPRIINTS

Spring Fun Has Sprung

The hot air you feel isn't coming from the mouths of the usual culprits. Nor is it the onset of the end of the world forecast by those climate guys. It is the result of the Earth tilting on its axis and facing our hemisphere towards the sun. That means we, like a turned marshmallow over a fire are going to get toasted for awhile. So what better thing to do than come out to an AMOS meeting in the cool back room of the Centre Lodge #153 lodge hall?

This month we're having another eat yourself full Crescent style meeting in the back room. So bring your favorite dishes or snacks and brush up on your jokes and stories. In addition to our usual back room antics, there will be the 'initiation' of our newest Past Grand Monarch into the ranks of the has-beens. It's going to be a messy affair for him and a good time for you. Just remember, whatever you do to him will be what may be done to you when you make your way into the ranks of the has-beens. See you on the 27th!

AMOS Convention News

For whatever reason, the Mid-Atlantic Division is not going to meet in State College this year. BUT... We've been asked to put in a bid for the Supreme Sanctorum's convention in a couple years. Start your crazy idea makers churning because we may very well have a pretty big show to put on in a little while. Time flies when you're having fun (which we always are), so it will be right around the corner in no time at all.

AMOS on Parade

On Saturday June 5th, Centaur Sanctorum will have a float in the Port Matilda Fire Carnival parade. The float is intended to be a giant fez. Any AMOS member who can make the parade (meeting at 3pm) is encouraged to attend. Slap on a fez, bring your lawn tractor if you have one and get ready to have a load of fun in a short parade!

Unified Session Hospitality

Yes we can...have an AMOS hospitality room at the Unified Session in Harrisburg this year. The theme is Toga Party. Do you have to have a toga? No. Will it be more fun if you do? Yes. What constitutes a toga? Just throw a bed sheet over your shoulder and strap your belt around your waist (preferably have some clothes on underneath for everyone's safety) and you're golden.

Knock Knock
Who's there?
Fez!
Fez who?
Fez me, that's who!

A joke from Morocco that landed its publisher in jail for up to five years:

At the beginning of the school year, the teacher asked his students to introduce themselves. The first: "I am the Prophet David, peace be upon him." "Silence," said the teacher, "that's blasphemy." The second student: "I am the Prophet Abass, peace be upon him." "Silence, you sorry fool," the teacher told him. And so on until a student said, "I am the Prophet Mohammed, peace be upon him." The teacher replied, "Silence, aren't you afraid of God's punishment?" "No, I won't punish him," said a student from the back row.
